Art McGaw – Music Faculty

Dear Taylor Music Parent(s):

A performance uniform will be checked out to your child during assigned Rehearsal dates during the week of December 5th 2011. You and your child are responsible for its safe return to Taylor School at the end of this school year. The red bow tie and cummerbund uniform will be worn for the Winter Concert in December, and for several other performances through the school year including the Heritage Music Festival in May. The intention is to maintain these uniform pieces in excellent condition, so I ask that you observe the following rules:

- Please DO NOT wash the bow tie or cummerbund in your washing machine.
- If the pieces need ironing, please be sure to use the warm setting on steam and permanent press.
- Parents and Students are responsible for maintaining the uniform and music equipment. If damage occurs, or if repairs are needed, or if the uniform is lost, please report this to the Music Faculty or Parent Volunteer immediately. Taylor Music must be reimbursed for Lost or damaged uniforms: *Bow Tie: $10.00 Cummerbund: $10.00
- All performing Music Students must wear the Red Bow Tie and Red Cummerbund when instructed to.
- All performing Music Students are to wear a tucked in, white collared, long sleeve, buttoned down the front cotton shirt. (Please no short sleeves, open necklines or turtlenecks or polo shirts.)
- All performing Music Boy Students are to wear long black slacks with black dress socks and black hard-soled dress shoes. (Please no designs on the slacks, no jeans, no baggy or sagging pants, no athletic shoes and no sandals.)
- All performing Music Girl Students are to wear long black slacks or black knee-length or longer skirts with black socks (with pants) or black tights (with skirt) and black dress shoes. (Please no designs on pants or skirts, no short skirts above the knee, no jeans, no nylons/panty hose, no flesh colored legs should show, no athletic shoes, no sandals.)
- All performing Music Students are to be covered from neck to waist in white (no bare arms, please), and black from the waist to feet (no bare legs, please).
